

Sam's Map

My friend Sam
loves his subway map.
He's happy that he has one.
He looks at his map
before his nap.
He looks at his map
with his family.
He rests his map upon his lap
and imagines the trains underground:
zooming around with a wham and a slam
past rats and bats
and little lost cats.
